

May 18, 1965 STATINTL

Interview with [REDACTED]

The "Munster Board" was strictly an OPC affair. [REDACTED] organized a small committee whose purpose was to review marginal projects and kill them ~~as many~~ as many of these as possible. He knew that Col.
[REDACTED] was on this committee.
[REDACTED] was not sure whether a [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were also on this committee.

[REDACTED] agreed that CIA had fared pretty well in the hands of Congress as far as its budget was concerned.